

Department of Economics GC University, Lahore GCU Admission Test Pattern of MS / M.Phil Programs

The pattern of test for MPhil in Economics, MS Banking and Financial Economics and Entrepreneurship and SME Management is as follows:

1. MPhil (Economics)

Areas to be covered	Division of Marks (Total Mark 60)
Microeconomics	10 Marks (Objective questions)
Macroeconomics	10 Marks (Objective questions)
Development Economics	10 Marks (Objective questions)
International Economics	10 Marks (Objective questions)
Mathematics & Quantitative techniques	10 Marks (Objective questions)
An essay on any problem/issue of the Economy of	10 Marks
Pakistan

2. MS (Banking and Financial Economics)

Areas to be covered	Division of Marks (Total Mark 60)
Economics (Microeconomics and Macroeconomics)	15 Marks (Objective questions)
Fundamental concepts of business and its various	15 Marks (Objective questions) classifications, forms of management, its functions and related concepts, accounting system and mechanisms, major classifications of accounting and usage of respective forms, financial decision making, time value of money, and Basic concepts of finance
Financial Economics (Financial instruments like	10 Marks (Objective questions))
LC, futures, options, CDs, shares, bonds)
Banking sector (Current theoretical and applied	10 Marks (Objective questions) issues) and General Knowledge
An essay on any problem/issue of the financial	10 Marks sector of Pakistan

MS (Entrepreneurship and SME Management)

Areas to be covered	Division of Marks (Total Mark 60)
Economics (Microeconomics and Macroeconomics)	15 Marks (Objective questions)
Accounting and Finance in SMEs and Basic	15 Marks (Objective questions) concepts of Business entities like sole proprietorship, partnership and corporate and current issues of SMEs and their role in Development
English and General Knowledge	20 Marks (Objective questions)
An essay on any problem/issue of the	10 Marks entrepreneurial aspects and SME management	