

Dr. Muhammad Ajmal

September 17, 1919; passed M.A in philosophy from GC, Lahore, 1941; obtained Ph. D. in Psychology from University college, London, 1952; appointed senior lecturer in Psychology at GC, June, 1953; joined the Bureau of National Reconstruction, Govt. of Pakistan, Rawalpindi, as Psychologist, 1960; returned to GC as Senior Professor and Head of the Department of Psychology, 1962; Toured USA on leadership – specialist grant, August to December, 1963; Elected as Foreign Affiliate to the American Psychology at North Eastern College, Chicago, Illinois, USA 1969 – 70; Vice Chancellor, Punjab University 1972 – 73, Education Secretary, Federal Government, 1973 -