

Prof. Muhammad Ahmed Khan

B. December 18, 1221; Education, Intermediate, Muslim University Aligarh (India) 1940; B.A., University of the Punjab, 1942; M.A. (English language and literature), 1944; B.A. Honours, English language and literature, University college, London University, 1956; appointed senior lecturer at GC Lahore; left GC to become Principal of Government college, Rawalpindi, 1961; returned to GC as Senior professor; appointed Principal, Government College, Jhang, 1963; appointed Principal, GC Sahiwal; returned to GC Lahore as the Vice-principal.

