

Professor Muhammad Rashid

December 1, 1919; Education: Matriculation, Islamia Hight School Qasur, 1936; B. A. Murrary College, Sialkot, 1940; M. A. Economics, Punjab University through Islamia College, Lahore, 1942; M. Sc. (Econ.) London School of Economics, 1954; Professor of Economics and head of the department of Economics, GC, Lahore, 1947 – 65; Principal, GC, 1965 – 67; Director, Education, Rawalpindi Region, 1967 – 68; Secretary Education, Punjab, 1972 – 75; Addl. Chief Secretary, Government of Punjab February – July, 1975; Secretary Education, 1975 – 76; Director NIPA, December 1, 1976; member of numerous national and international economic bodies, author of a number of research articles which were published in some journals of international repute.