

Abstract

The first two chapters of this thesis recall the necessary facts on the singularities, intersections and topology of algebraic complex plane curves. The remaining chapters provide new applications of these techniques to the topology of fibers of polynomial functions, elliptic curves associated to 4-bar mechanisms and characteristic varieties of plane curve complements.